RE: Murray v. New York City Ballet, Inc.
23 CV 09718 (AT)

Dear Judge Torres:

This firm represents the Plaintiff in the above entitled action. We write to respectfully request a one week extension from January 9, 2024 to January 16, 2024, to submit the joint letter and the jointly proposed Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order, as required by the Initial Pre-Trial Scheduling Order. ECF Doc. #7. Counsel for Plaintiff makes this application because the demands of other matters, do not afford her sufficient time to complete the work needed to meet the January 9 deadline. This is Plaintiff's first request for an extension. The Defendant consents to the application for the one week extension.

Counsel has to meet a January 4 filing deadline in a case pending in the Southern District and prepare for and attend a FINRA arbitration on January 8. On January 9, counsel must appear before the Second Circuit in a case pending before that court, and file a motion in a case pending in the Southern District. Due to the foregoing demands and as a solo practitioner, counsel is unable to devote the time required to undertake and complete the work necessary, to file the joint letter and proposed Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order by the due date of January 9, 2024.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests a one week extension to January 16, 2024 to file the joint letter and jointly proposed Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order.

Respectfully,

/s/Sandra D. Parker

GRANTED.

SO ORDERED.
